

PAST LIFE REGRESSION

Why You Need To Visit Your Past Lives!

Why Regressions?

So many people have asked “Why should I visit a past life when I have enough problems in this life? I don’t need any more problems!” The truth is that the problems that affect you in this life are unresolved issues that are carried over from your past life and integrated into your present day problems. Those issues need to be finished before you can move on into your present life or you might become stuck in your present growth. It is likened to having your child fail the 5th grade and due to your love; the child takes it over in order to understand the 6th grade. Of course that would be a punishment to the child (karma) but is an act of love from the parent (dharma).

Who Are You ??

Most individuals say “that is just who I am”. Who you think you are, is not really who you truly are. Rather, it is your feeling and wisdom at your soul level of past and present life experiences that is your true self. You are not born with a clean slate. You, in fact, bring all your experiences, positive and negative, with you and then blend them into your present life conditions. Before you are incarnated, you made contracts as to the lessons that you decided you must experience. As you incarnate, the lessons become your innate destiny as you experience a sort of amnesia to that destiny. Then your “Free Will” takes over. If you don’t finish learning the lessons that you contracted for, you will incarnate many times until completed. Your passion becomes your destiny and thus you’re Spiritual Pathway. As you realize and live your purpose, you will have the experience and wisdom needed to fulfill your life mission.

Be Present In Your Past Life

When visiting a past life, you will experience yourself there, just like you are in the present. Here you will be able to see, feel and remember places of your past. The skills that you experienced in your past life can be brought forward into the present. We have an individual that brought back his music from the 1500’s and now has a CD on the market, “Songs of Past Lives”. Many healers have brought back their wisdom and are doing healings without modern training. The “Akashic Records” are also opened and anyone that is in your past life will be recognized as the same person from your present life. As you connect with those individuals from the past, you will see the correlation of why they are the way they are today. You will experience family members as once your mother and now your brother. We usually do reincarnate in the same soul groups and trade life places such as the mother of the past to the brother in the present. Twin Flames and Soul Mates are also revisited from the past to the present.

Travel In-Between Life’s

You will experience and visit with your Counsel Level of 12 where you can ask for help to understand and guide yourself on your path. Any experience that you have within your past life; you can revisit that life and bring the wisdom forward. After all, they are your lives. You are able to talk at the conscious level of both the past and present life. This ability is because past lives are really parallel lives. Thus, all your parallel lives are still functioning all at the same time. Because the lives are still functioning, you can resolve and change those issues just like you can change issues in your present life.

THE POWER OF PAST LIFE REGRESSION gives you the ability to resolve past life issues and allowing you to live in the present life without those conditions from the past. PAST LIFE REGRESSIONS DON’T CREATE MORE PROBLEMS - THEY GIVE YOU THE ABILITY TO RESOLVE THOSE ISSUES ALLOWING THE FREEDOM TO LIVE YOUR PRESENT LIFE MORE FULLY!

Resolving Past Life Conditions

Past life regression is a form of therapy that is faster than any therapy today. Any issue that you are experiencing has some imprinting from your past lives and most can be corrected with one to three sessions.
